

CLIENT

Rutland

LOCATION

Woking

VALUE

£3.3M

DATE

CASE STUDY

Westminster Court.

About the project.

This project involved the design and construction of existing office accommodation to convert into 45 affordable residential units for Rutland Woking.

The proposals involved the reuse and adaptation of the existing structure, which was assumed as follows:

- Loadbearing cavity wall masonry construction
- Concrete beam and block ground and intermediate floors
- Intermediate internal walls assumed to extend within roof space

